TEACHING

EXPERIENCE

- Principles of Marketing

Fall 2023 – Fall 2024, six sections with an average of 33 students per section

Average course evaluation score: 4.85/5.0

Range = 5.0 – 4.7, Standard deviation = .096

Select qualitative feedback:

“The best teacher I have had at NCCU thus far! He is great at teaching and interacting with the class in a way that keeps everyone interested and attentive. In addition to that, I really appreciate that he took the time to learn everyone’s name in the class!”

“This was my favorite course. Such an amazing class and I wish I could take his courses all the time. He does a great job teaching and ensuring we understand what is being taught. I also enjoyed solving real-life examples using the strategies we learned in class.”

“The most helpful aspects of the instructor were the approachability, dedicated, and thoughtful. He was very easy to approach, and when you requested him to explain stuff he went into detail to make sure you understood the content. I believe he went above and beyond to assist me even past the request itself.”

- Marketing Research (Fall 2024) – 21 students 4.7/5.0
 (Spring 2023) – 39 students 4.7/5.0
 (Spring 2023) – 40 students 4.7/5.0
 (Spring 2022) – 45 students 4.1/5.0

Select qualitative feedback:

“Your passion for Marketing Research is infectious, and your dedication to your students is truly inspiring.”

“His outgoingness and love for the class make it easier to actually attend classes.”

“Josh engages students to ask questions and communicate their thoughts. You can tell he is passionate about what he is teaching and wants his students to excel.”

“You have truly gone above and beyond in your role as my professor, and I feel so fortunate to have had the opportunity to learn from you.”

- Consumer Behavior (Fall 2020) – 49 students – Hybrid format 4.2/5.0

Select qualitative feedback:

“He is very consistent and clear when teaching as well as providing questions that stimulate deep consideration. He is challenging but in a good way.”

“Josh is clearly invested in the course and cares about students learning and retaining knowledge.”

“One of the most informational and not boring lectures I have ever had.”
